Al-Muminah's Islamic Studies - I Nov 09 2020 Children are taught academic subjects through simple, lucid and attractive books. However, for teaching Islamic Studies, we are still struggling to give them the best. Firstly, the content matter has to be simplified based on their age and then presented in a way that children love to read. Al-Mu'minah's Islamic Studies Series is an attempt to address this challenge. The series contains Islamic knowledge based on the Qur'an and authentic Ahadeeth. The books have been graded so that the text is class appropriate. The textbook of each grade has been divided into units for better understanding of the subject matter. The language of the lessons and the explanation of the topics are made from the children's perspective. The series aims to acquaint students with the teachings of Islam including belief, practices, moral conduct, biography of the Prophet & and stories of the Prophets. Some topics are presented, using a spiral approach, where students revisit the same topic and study it in greater depths in subsequent years. Please note that the essentials of Islam that need to be memorised by every Muslim have been compiled in another graded series titled 'Misbahul-Ilm.' Alhamdulillah, the Misbahul-Ilm Series contains a compilation of essentials of Islam which should be memorised by every Muslim - soorahs of the 30th Juz, Daily Duas, some Ahadeeth, Asma-ul-Husna, various Adhkars, Qur'anic supplications, all with the English translation. The explanation of the memorised soorahs is given in subsequent grades in the Islamic Studies Series so that in one grade the student focuses on the memorisation of the soorah from the Misbahul-Ilm Series and in the subsequent grade the focus is on the explanation of the soorah using the Islamic Studies Series. Thus the two series complement each other to provide comprehensive Islamic education Alhamdulillah.

Al-Hikmah Islamic Studies Level 6 Part 1 Nov 29 2019 Islamic Studies Level 6 (part 1) book mainly focuses on the concept of worship in Islam, the purpose and role of the messengers and the values of tolerance and diversity. After studying the essential principles of the faith and the six pillars of Islam in the previous books, the student is introduced to the Islamic concept of 'ibadah' (worship) in a greater depth. This textbook is part of the universal version of Al-Hikmah Islamic Education Curriculum (HIEC), which seeks to provide a balanced authentic Islamic knowledge based on the Quran and the Sunnah. HIEC is the outcome of extensive research and teaching expertise in the field of Islamic studies and education practice. It aims to foster in students the essential Islamic beliefs and values that drive the pursuit of excellence. Research confirms that students are better engaged, and learning is more effective when the teaching material used provides information and examples that are relevant to the life of students. Therefore, to learn more about the customizable version of this curriculum, we advise you to visit our website (<http://www.widom.org.au>). The HIEC customizable version is better personalised than traditional textbooks, more affordable in the long run, evolving and up to date, collaborative and relevant.

Islamic Studies Dec 11 2020 "The present series covers all areas of Islamic studies: tafseer, hadeeth, tawheed, fiqh, seerah and general etiquette relating to different areas and situations. Every effort has been made to ensure that the material presented in the series is authentic, and most of the terms are presented in their original Arabic script, along with the transliteration and the translation of their meanings. This also applies to supplications which have to be memorised in their Arabic version. The aim here is to help the reader read the original text and understand its meaning. Each lesson is followed by exercises covering questions about the lesson."--Page 4 of cover.

Pragmatism in the Approach to Teaching Of Arabic and Islamic Studies. A 21st Century Requirement for Effective Delivery Sep 07 2020 Academic Paper from the year 2022 in the subject Guidebooks - School, Education, Pedagogy, grade: 5.0, , course: Arabic and Islamic Studies, language: English, abstract: Previous studies have dwelled extensively on the problems facing Arabic and Islamic education in Nigeria. Such problems as documented by literature include lack of unified syllabus, inadequate qualified teachers, unavailability of relevant textbooks and Government's negative disposition to the subjects. As apt as these problems are, it is axiomatic to note that that a wrong approach to teaching the subjects is a fundamentally great impediment to effective and result-oriented delivery as far as the teaching of the subjects is concerned. This is premised on the fact that irrespective of provisions made to address major problems militating against the survival of Arabic and Islamic Studies among other teaching subjects at all levels, the tendency for the subjects to remain backward and be treated with inferiority will still be there if a proper and pragmatic approach to teaching them are not institutionalized. It is on this note that this paper set out to examine the best approach to teaching the two subjects in the 21st Century. This study therefore espoused some wrong approaches employed in teaching the subjects with a view to ensuring a paradigm shift in order to achieve a better result from the teacher-student relationships otherwise known as education. The paper, as a matter of background, made a deliberate attempt to exhume the history of Arabic and Islamic Studies in the educational sojourn of Nigeria. In the process, the travail as well as the fortune that characterised the emergence of the twin subjects was revealed. In our assessment of the situation, it could be adjudged as a natural birth from "grass" and growth to "grace" as the subjects stand today. New approaches were consequently suggested as a way to "right" the "wrong" in terms of teaching methodologies and hence pragmatism of the old techniques as suggested by the topic of the paper. Though the study focused majorly on Arabic and Islamic Studies at the Secondary School Level, its thrust is of universal application across subjects and levels of education in Nigeria.

Islamic Education in the West: a Comprehensive Reform Dec 31 2019 Islamic education needs to develop high school graduates who are active, productive, influential, high achievers, ambitious, message carriers, able to deal with challenges, able to present Islam to non-muslims, able to clear misconceptions about Islam, willing to narrow the gap between Islam and the West, strive to be the best socially, academically, religiously, and willing to play a key role for society. This book proposes a reform that will achieve the stated goals. A reform that defines and outlines the characteristics of an influential teacher, an effective school administration, an effective current curriculum, effective extracurricular activities, and the nature of a dynamic learning environment.
