Witch's Island and Other Poems Sep 26 2019 PETER HARGITAI's work, both in scope and in style, remains well outside the pale of current poetic fashion including the McPoems of MFA mills and the lip- tongue- ear literature of hiphop. Influenced by the great Hungarian poet Attila József's obsession with the eternal mother as a metaphor for all human longing, Hargitai probes the nature of spiritual exile on terms that are neither Freudian nor Jungian, American, or Hungarian, but on terms that are uniquely personal and movingly human. Praise for Peter Hargitai's Mother Tongue: A Broken-Hungarian Love Song: "If traditional confessional poetry, now considered classical, had its halcyon days in the work of Roethke, Lowell, and Plath, it can be said to have reached a new, ethnically charged peak in the work of Peter Hargitai." Pembroke Magazine "Peter Hargitai is a remarkable versatile and humanely touching poet with a truly distinctive style and voice. These deeply probing intellectual poems exhibit an impressive range and vivacity of genres." Laurence Lieberman Poetry Editor University of Illinois Press

Using Storytelling to Talk About... Making Relationships Apr 25 2022 The 'Using storytelling to talk about...' series is a collection of five easy-to-follow books which contain engaging interactive short stories, poems and songs specifically written to support learning and development of the three prime areas within the Early Years Foundation Stage. The stories and poems deal with Personal, social and emotional development and Physical development issues and experiences that the children would clearly relate to and discuss. Making relationships provides valuable storytelling advice and performance suggestions for each story or poem/song, enabling practitioners to not only develop effective storytelling skills, but also create a stimulating environment for the children to listen, participate and explore. It contains: * Eight original interactive themed stories and poems/songs * Concise EYFS learning objectives * EYFS reference chart, observation suggestions and record sheet. Each story or poem/song includes: * Storytelling suggestions, resources and set up * Discussion and ideas to reinforce the theme and story/poem * Consolidation ideas, e.g. role play, circle game, display, puppets * Related cross-curricular activities within the learning environment.

A Bard Out of Time May 15 2021 "A Bard Out of Time" is a long poem that centers on a bard singing songs and traveling from one village to another in a fantasy world. Spells, magical creatures, kings and queens, werewolves, and the like all make an appearance in this poem as he regales his audiences with the ballads he sings. The other poems in this collection are also fantasy-oriented, but they did not fit in with the plot / structure of "A Bard Out of Time" (most are not ballads) or were not reflective of the setting of that poem. Some of these poems cross over into the dark fantasy/horror genre (particularly the ones with demons in them), but others are playful or risqué.

Serving Productive Time Aug 18 2021 From the coauthor of Chicken Soup for the Prisoner's Soul—a program that develops positive change for inmates and their loved ones With their books Chicken Soup for the Prisoner's Soul and Chicken Soup for the Volunteer's Soul, Tom and Laura Lagana have shown readers how to make positive use of their time—whether they are serving others or serving time. In Serving Productive Time they go one step further, using powerful stories, poems, and cartoons created by inmates and others to address the realities of penal existence. They build on these voices of experience with essays and advice that show inmates how to truly make their time count, and give meaning to their lives right now, while making amends for their crimes and working toward release. Inspires inmates to use programs and resources, perform positive deeds, and acquire skills Empowers correctional staff, counselors, families, and volunteers to help inmates who want to make positive changes in their lives Reading for the Young Jun 03 2020

Homie Apr 13 2021 'A deeply personal collection... and provocative and moving meditation on friendship, sex and blackness,' Guardian 'In its cutting compassion, Homie is as much a celebration of loved ones' lives as it is a lament for their loss, equally a war cry for kinship and the burial dirge after the battle' Amanda Gorman A mighty anthem about the saving grace of friendship, Danez Smith's highly anticipated collection Homie is rooted in their search for joy and intimacy in a time where both are scarce. In poems of rare power and generosity, Smith acknowledges that in a country overrun by violence, xenophobia and disparity, and in a body defined by race, queerness, and diagnosis, it can be hard to survive, even harder to alphabet. Both the poem and artwork imply a story about each pet. The poem was written first and then each pet was illustrated using ink and gouache by Sue Clancy. She hopes to make you smile. This book is the requested sequel to Alphapets by Clancy. Within hours of the original release of Alphapets the book was, with permission, picked up by a publishing-distribution house called Storyberries where it quickly had over 5000 views, then 10,000 and more. So Storyberries and Clancy's many fans requested a sequel! As people commented on the original book Clancy was asked "but what about lizards, fish and birds? They're pets too! Are you going to do a book about them?" Clancy said "of course!" and this book is the result. Hope you enjoy it!
