And I didn't know why. I'd done everything my upline taught me. I was signing up people every week. But if nobody does anything, you don't have a business, you have a job and that's not why I started a network marketing business. What did I do? I spoke to a leader in our company named Ron. I told him my story and asked for his advice. Ron explained to me "The facts of life" about network marketing.
